1. What's one "possession" in your life (time, money, relationships, or resources) that feels out of control lately? How does it connect to the sermon's "Grab and Go" story?
 2. Share a time when worrying about "stuff" kept you up at night. What did that feel like?
 3. What does the Bible say about greed in Luke 12:15 and the rich fool's story? How does it distort priorities?
 4. Observe the ravens and lilies in Luke 12:24-28 — what do they teach us about worry?
 5. How does Jesus' response to the inheritance dispute show His greater concern?
 6. What does "God's kingdom project" mean in everyday terms, according to the message?
 7. Describe a personal area where greed or worry has had a grip on you.
 8. How does knowing your Father "knows, cares, and provides" change your perspective on anxiety?
 9. In what ways does our culture reflect the "never enough" mindset Jesus challenges?
 10. What one action will you take this week to make God's kingdom your priority? Share a prayer request for support.
